

Don't pay the price of your anti-social behaviour!

EVICTED

What we define as anti-social behaviour...

- Noise—this can be any sort of intrusive noise at excessive levels including TV's, HiFi's, D.I.Y., slamming doors and shouting
- Condition of property—this is the internal and external condition of the home including garden areas
- Behaviour of children—out of control children who have a damaging effect on the area
- Criminal activities—incidents such as assaults, drug dealing, handling stolen goods and criminal damage
- Animals—failing to control pets or animals
- Inappropriate use of property—using the property or allowing the property to be used for illegal or immoral purposes
- Threats or harassment—verbal threats or intimidation
- Hate crime—this is when an individual, group or family are abused physically or verbally because of race, colour, disability, age, sex or sexual preference
- Allowing visitors or guests, including children, to act as agents to engage in any of the above anti-social behaviour
- Domestic violence

WIGAN & LEIGH
HOUSING

Better Homes, Brighter Futures